

Instructions for Maria Rebeca Valerio and Edward Beato

August 5, 2017

The Announcing Angel and the Herald appeared in a dream to pastor Knoll in a dream bringing a message for Maria Rebeca Valerio Castillo and Edward Beato Batista. This message needs to be given personally when Laura Quintero and Isabel Rincon arrive at the Dominican Republic. God sends them as a result of the problems between them.

Although God would have preferred that these problems would have never happened, He's permitted them for a specific motive, and will use them as an example that will benefit many. Nevertheless, sin always has consequences, and God demands that both comply with their instructions as payment and restitution. None of the two is innocent; in God's eyes, BOTH are EQUALLY to blame.

We should remember that when someone sins, God quickly forgives and forgets. Nevertheless, God ALWAYS demands and expects that reparations be made for damages caused. Before I say what, the restitution is that God demands, you must understand that He allows things to happen to benefit many. If you obey, God will use the sins of you both to benefit many. Also know, that you are not the only ones of whom restitution is demanded for having sinned.

EDWARD

Loly has committed adultery, and you have been the cause of what she has done. It is as if you were a cook in a restaurant, where you prepare food for others, but you have left her hungry. So that she went to another restaurant to be fed. You should not point the finger, as did Adam. On the contrary, you should look at yourself and say, "I haven't been the husband I should have been".

God himself has said: "Edward, it is your fault. You need to be loving and affectionate. You should desire to have her close to you every time it is possible to do so".

1. As the man, you should accept and understand your role as the leader in this family. No more should you leave your mind hostile the mentality of a dictator. God considers that marriage consists of $\frac{1}{2} + \frac{1}{2} = 1$ whole.
 - a. You should consult all your decisions with Loly, and she should say if she agrees or not with what you propose.
 - b. If she is not in agreement, you need to accept her point of view and desist to carry on your idea.
 - c. The same applies to Loly. If she wants to do something, and you do not agree, that is the end of that.

- d. The marriage should be an agreement between both.
- 2. Because of your ego and the financial decisions, you've taken, you've acted badly, and have caused much stress in your marriage.
 - a. You've indebteded yourself, even though the Bible and Spirit of Prophecy teach clearly that God's people should avoid debt like avoiding leprosy.
 - b. On various occasions, For My People Ministry sent funds to feed your family, because you persisted in carrying out your ideas, against the counsel of your wife.
 - c. To please yourself, you've made your wife and children to suffer.
- 3. What will be required of your wife will be very difficult for you as a husband. Nevertheless, you should accept the instructions for her and say, "I alone have provoked this, because I have not been the husband God requires me to be. The restitution that is being imposed on her is my fault".
- 4. The restitution that is being demanded of her is not harder or easier than yours. Before God, the restitution of both are just and balanced.

LOLY

Obviously, you are not innocent. Nevertheless, neither should you consider that your punishment and restitution more difficult than Edward's. Your place is next to your husband. You should not separate yourself from him, UNLESS it be for work motives, a trip to preach, or special occasions where families get together.

- 1. God has said, because you lowered yourself to the level of a prostitute, you will need to act the role that you accepted to be. From this moment forward you must change your dress.
- 2. God has said, because you lowered yourself to the level of a prostitute, you will need to act the role that you accepted to be. From this moment forward you must change your dress.
- 3. Inside the house with your children, you and Edward must walk naked, as did Isaiah.
 - a. Your children must understand that this is what God is calling their parents to do ALL THE TIME.
 - b. Inside the house, you will always be nude, including the hours of sleep.
- 4. As consequences to your actions, when you go shopping, when you go run errands. You must use high heels, short skirts (like skaters wear), and thin shirts, almost transparent.
 - a. During church worships, use what you've accustomed to wear.
 - b. If you go out with your children to a playground or courts (game), you must wear short skirt and a thin shirt, but instead of high heels, you may use low shoes or flip flops.

5. The basic premise is: You should not worry about exhibiting your body
 - a. You must be embarrassed.
 - b. Edward must understand that the exhibition of his wife's body is his fault.
6. You must tell your friends and family: “when you come visit me, I will be naked.”
 - a. Tell them, "It is required that we walk naked to feel shame. Thus, when you come to see us, Edward and I will be naked. We will welcome you at the door naked. This is what we are required to do.”
 - b. “If you see me around town with very little clothing, it is because that is what I've been commanded.”
7. God requires more of certain individuals, because He expects much of them, and when you do, God will be glorified.
8. You must celebrate reunions in various places, where you will say; “God is always just and equitable.”
 - a. You will travel and preach much to the favor of God.
 - b. When you travel on a bus to present reunions, you should wear shorts and a thin blouse.
 - c. You must prepare a special message to preach.
 - i. The sermon should have as a theme to glorify God
 - ii. You must say that all His decisions and judgments are just and correct.
 - iii. Later on, there is a sketch of what you must say d. Start from right now to tell your friends, “I have received a message directly from the throne of God. It was given by the angel Gabriel and the angel that stands next to him. Don't miss it.”

BOTH

As part of your restitution, there is something else you should know regarding personal relations. Both should be very open in your relations: Loly, you must approach your husband to show physical affection frequently and with much interest. You must welcome him to enter all parts of your body.

You must explain to your children that this is normal. This is what Jesus and his angels showed Adam and Eve to do. This is what they did in front of their children. Our generation has done this behind closed doors and in the dark.

None of you should treat this message lightly. If one of you say “no” to this message, everything ends, and your eternal salvation is in jeopardy.

SERMON

Loly, this is what you must include in your sermon

- God is just, and His decisions are always correct, even though it may not look like it or we believe that they are.
 - You must absolve God of any fault.
- Confess your sin (even though we must confess before we come to God)
 - Tell them: “God has forgiven me, but has said I must pay for the damages caused, in other words, there is punishment and I must make restitution
- Talk a little about the marriage
 - I've been told marriage should be 50/50
 - The husband is not (99%)
 - If he doesn't fulfill his part (50%), that will cause problems
 - If I, as a wife, don't fulfill my (50%), there will be failure in the marriage - Explain the importance that marriage should be 50/50, and not a dictatorship.
 - The spouses must share, because it is not like building a house, but forming a home. -
- I came today to confess openly and explain my restitution.
 - Both me and my husband failed-together and equally.
 - I was not faithful to my husband, and I had an adulteress relationship outside my marriage.
 - I sinned, and the message that God sent explained that the fault was of both parties.
 - As a result of my failure, I felt unworthy, but God can use everything to help others understand things.
- Explain your own restitution.
 - It's difficult, it's horrible, etc, but through this, God is glorified.
 - This is a test to show that the true children of God will demonstrate their faith and obedience in complying with anything he asks to do. (You must not enter into graphic details.)
 - Say, “I am a distinct woman, a different wife than I was before.
 - My husband and I gladly accept whatever God asks is a service for Him.
 - What I am telling you is not for you to think that you should imitate me, instead this is the punishment and restitution that God has assigned me.
- As part of my restitution, always when my husband and I are home, it is demanded that we be naked.
 - Of course, there are reasonable exceptions, for example if he is welding, he should use protective equipment. If it is cold, we can use clothes.
 - If family members, friends, or members of the church come to visit, we are sent to be totally nude, to illustrate publicly the great sin we've both committed.
 - I am not permitted to wear under garments.
 - If any lady would like more details, please have the courtesy to ask me in private.

- When I leave the house, I cannot dress how I used to.
 - Given that I allowed myself to act as a prostitute, I have to use high heels, extremely short skirts, and thin shirts. These things form part of my restitution.
 - My husband and I have to accept the reality that it is his fault that I am obligated to exhibit myself in this manner.
- If you see me at the mall or at the supermarket dressed with high heels, a thin shirt, etc, don't condemn me, instead know that I am obeying.
 - If any of you condemns me verbally or in your mind, know that God can require the same of you and more!
 - You should not condemn me for dressing according to his rules.

This should be your sermon. God should be justified and glorified. He expects, as part of the restitution between the two, forgiveness, patience, love and acceptance of the punishment and restitution. God wants others to know that He is using individuals in different ways, very different than the majority of people would like to accept.

Both are to blame and know God has forgiven you. If not, He would not have sent us to come with such urgency, nor would He have told you what he requires you do. This is your humiliation, and your restitution starts immediately.
