

I Now Pronounce You, Mrs Ernest Knoll

Perceivous begins telling me how Mary is to represent the Father's holy and only pure church. She tells of all the things Mary IS and is to continue to be pure, clean ever undefiled. Sanctified and unblemished by all that is of the outside world! She represents His one and only pure church. Perceivous smiles and says that it is imperative that Mary understands this and that, if necessary, she must be told this every day.

Perceivous says that she must never have her pure white garment stained with never even the slightest blemish. Even her earthly garments must reflect the true path she walks. Perceivous explains on a deeper level that she must adhere to the dress uniform with complete carefulness. She states that she represents a pure church. Even for her to wear a warm day a camisole under a sheer shirt is a blemish upon His church. A warm day His church never hides or conceals that which is His pure clean Church. She is a clean pure church. Why would God blanket a pure blemish free church with a white tarp? Perceivous smiles as she knows that I do not understand. She reaches over and puts her hand on my knee and says on a warm day she should wear just a sheer shirt without a shirt underneath. With either a short dress or a skirt. She is the unbridled, pure, clean church. But on a cold day she should dress accordingly.

Perceivous now sits back, pauses, and looks to the Guide angel for a moment. She says that whereas Laurie, Jennifer, Becky and others represent other churches, Mary represents the Father's one and only pure church.

She begins by saying that Mary needs to understand that God had given a two-week honeymoon for Laurie to enjoy with her husband. She needs to understand that God even had Jesus perform the wedding. He had instructed that you were both to enjoy two weeks together. But Mary needs to understand the truth about Laurie and how her emotions overpowered her, and she canceled the honeymoon. She needs to understand that when God gives something or asks something, it is to be freely accepted, and always without question. Those who know the Father and His voice act without impulse, but simply, serve! Mary needs to know how Laurie was. Laurie must be up front and honest with her private thoughts. If not, God will ask her to repeat her talk with Mary again, and if necessary again and again. He knows all thoughts, and nothing can be or ever be hidden from Him. She needs to be, and she smiles as she says this, truthful. After all she is now Mrs. Ernest Knoll. She is also truth. She must always speak truth, especially when it comes to Mary.

Laurie must explain to Mary that even with what she is instructed, that she must remain pure and holy in all things. Remind her that Jesus forgave her, cleansed her and once again made her a virgin. She was made to be a pure, holy vessel for God. Mary must understand that it is so very important that she remain a pure vessel, undefiled. She must understand that Laurie will not be there all the time, and neither will Jennifer. But she must stand alone, a pure, undefiled, clean vessel. The only one that represents God's sacred and holy church!

She needs to know and remember that God has a replacement ready, one who is younger and much more immature, but is ready to take Mary's place. God is ready, as He knows what must be done. It would be a great loss for Mary to forego all this because she wants to have a friend. She must understand that hers is a walk without social friends. She will not ever have a friend to hold her hand. She will never walk down an aisle. She will never feel the penetration that she desires in her heart, or begin a family of her own!

She must understand that His church will never produce an offspring of any other church. Mary represents the church that is and will be His only true church. A church that stands as a bright beacon upon a hill. His house that stands for truth! This is why she must understand that Laurie and Jennifer both carry the name of Mrs. Ernest Knoll. It is because both sisters serve as wives that Mary also carries the name, not as a wife but as one of Truth, Shining brightly on a Hill. She now bears the name of her dad. Because of the laws of the land, she will not be able to legally change her name, but she is to know that she now, like her sisters, carries the name of Mary Knoll! It is because of the service of both sisters that she joins the family, and must carry the banner high in a sacred way.

Laurie must explain that she let her personal emotions come in to take control of self. She must explain that everyone must give up wanting things done their own way, and allow the Holy Spirit to show the way.

Please do not give it away or let your emotions take over. Give it up for Jesus as He gave all for you and forgave you. He is waiting for you to decide on which side you will take part of. There are only two sides Chris. One is for eternity and the other for destruction. Choose life over death. God, Jesus and the Spirit await you, don't push them away. I love you very much.
